

HBU-AHEF Professional Development Teacher Workshop
“The History and Foundation of Religious Freedom in America”

October 22, 2016

www.americanheritage.org

Presenters

Dr. John Tyler, Jr.

Dr. Tyler is Associate Professor of Law at Houston Baptist University, with an interest in Constitutional Law and American Jurisprudence. Tyler has served as a commercial, civil rights, and toxic tort litigation lawyer, with over 35 years of legal practice in Texas. He has served as counsel in two U. S. Supreme Court cases as well as in international cases. He has represented major oil, chemical, and financial companies worldwide. He holds Texas board certifications in Civil Trial Law and Personal Injury Trial Law. He is author of multiple award-winning articles. Tyler received Texas A&M University’s highest teaching award before joining the faculty at HBU. He holds a Ph.D. in Philosophy from Texas A&M University and a JD in Law from Southern Methodist University Law School.

Michael Gollihugh

Michael Gollihugh is Assistant Academic Dean, Dual Credit Coordinator, and a Government/History Teacher at Genesis Christian School. He has 13 years of teaching experience and is certified in Social Studies education, Principal Administration, and Leadership Development. He has also worked as a curriculum writer for American Heritage Education Foundation (AHEF). Gollihugh holds a B.A. in History from Texas Tech University, a M.Ed. from Wayland Baptist University, and a M.A. in History from University of Houston-Clear Lake.

Angela E. Kamrath

Angela E. Kamrath is President and Editorial Director of American Heritage Education Foundation (AHEF). She is Editor and a Contributing Writer of AHEF's widely-distributed teacher resource, America's Heritage: An Adventure in Liberty, and its new sequel, America's Heritage: An Experiment in Self-Government. She is Researcher and Author of AHEF's new reference book, The Miracle of America: The Influence of the Bible on the Founding History and Principles of the United States of America for a People of Every Belief. She has taught and consulted in writing and research at the University of Houston, Belhaven College, and Houston

Baptist University. She served as a Research Assistant intern in the Office of National Service during the George H. W. Bush administration. She holds a B.A. in Government from the University of Texas at Austin, a M.A. in Journalism from Regent University, and a M.Ed. from the University of Houston.

Carol R. Delac

Carol Delac is a Middle School Team Lead and a History and Religion Teacher at Corpus Christi Catholic School. She has 17 years of teaching experience and is certified in teaching all subjects in Grades 1-8. She also has two years of experience in TAKS preparation and administration. Delac has worked as a curriculum and lesson plan reviewer for the American Heritage Education Foundation (AHEF). She holds a B.A. in Education and Psychology with a Social Sciences Concentration from Duke University.

Dr. Chris Hammons

Dr. Christopher Hammons is Director of the Center for Law & Liberty and Professor of Government at Houston Baptist University. He teaches courses in Constitutional History, Political Philosophy, and Presidential Politics. He is the recipient of several teaching awards and an advocate of a classic liberal arts education, using primary texts in history, philosophy, and politics to teach about contemporary social and political issues. He has published numerous articles and books. His book, Constitutionalism of the American States, was nominated by the American Political Science Association for best book in history and politics. He is active in policy research and a speaker on the American Founding, George Washington, and the Constitutional Convention. Hammons holds a B.A. in Government and History from the University of Texas at Austin and an M.A. and Ph.D. in Political Science from the University of Houston.

Lesley Clinton

Lesley Clinton is an Educator and Curriculum Writer with over 15 years of teaching experience in English and Language Arts with schools including Strake Jesuit College Preparatory, Incarnate Word Academy, and Advance Academy. She has school curriculum development experience and has worked as a Curriculum Writer for the American Heritage Education Foundation (AHEF). Clinton holds a M.A. in Teaching from Grand Canyon University and a B.A. in English from the University of St. Thomas-Houston.